The Herald-Despatch has offices in New York, at 101 Broadway, Court building and at 101 W. 23d Street, United States Pictures building; M. Katz Advertising Agency in charge.

It is a large task to sustain that you can feel it more.

The people will bear in mind that

Bryan's campaign will be.

It is very bad for North Carolina and other states in view of the votes are governed without their consent Bryan, in the eyes of the most ignorant democrat would not have a ghost of a show of election.

The masses of American people are patriotic and will not vote to debase the black, Lawton, and his emulators who defeated the movement of the United States of the Philippines to please Aguinaldo his allies or William Jennings Bryan.

Bryan's Cockaigne is opposed to 10 to 1, he is opposed to an income tax law; he is opposed to every anachronistic and socialist movement; he is Bryan and regards

Bryan as a demagogue at least that would estimate of him in 1896, to hope to be a point for the non-partisan charter of the C. C. in meeting.

Bryan's Cockaigne in Anderson, Ind., states in a speech, that the first thing he would do as president would be to take the money of Bryan, print the tariff on the product of cotton in trade. To do this would dispossess, and in the gas belt, and the working men, and are not only anaires of the business and industry of the country but a few of them will now support him. The Indiana leaders are doing their best to patch the matter up but the speech stands nevertheless as a motion to all laborers.

The authority of every American voter who lets us in his own country and his own flag and who opposes political democracy, calculated to breed discontent and trouble and destroy patriotism, to and in the cause of his country and propose to march to the polls in November and crush once for all Bryan and his anti-

American popular gang, so completely that no party will again undertake to carry the country by preaching the goat of hate and discontent and assailing the government in the interests of those in rebellion against it.

THE FACTS OF HISTORY.

Washington urged the acquisition of

Cuba.

Hamilton's view—“We ought to look to the possession of Florida and Louisiana.”

Jefferson declared for extensive empire and for government and acquisition of

Cuba.

Jackson said—“Never cede any land or boundary of the republic but always add to it, thus extending freedom.”

Buchanan said—“Expansion is the future policy of our country and only cowards fear and oppose it.”

Douglas' view—“As fast as our interests and tiny require additional territory I am for it.”

Benjamin Franklin advocated the requisition of Canada.

AS TO RICHARD OLNEY.

You may not remember Dick Olney.

Dick lives in Boston. He is a silk stocking, a gold bug, corporation lawyer, who has not for years condoned to get down among the common herd who go to the pols and vote. That's Dick Olney.

It was Olney who was Cleveland's score-try of states and who did everything in his power for Spain and against Cuba. It was Dick who made the Madrid government believe all America was with it and at proof of Spain's treatment of Cuba.

That was Dick Olney.

Olney has had a presidential bid. In his silk house for many years, and it still buzzes. Dick knows Bryan is certain to be defeated, and that the democrats will be casting about in 1901 for a new Massato let them out of the wilderness. His hopes that will mean Dick Olney.

Dick knows that he is to be the line for the democratic Massa act, he must now ancuse the present recognized leader, and while he has not a whit of sympathy with any one of the Bryanistic propositions, yet he must get into line by endorsing Bryan.

That's Dick Olney.

BRYAN ANSWERED.

A week ago Bryan in a speech in No-braska City is the hope of aiding his revolutionary cause charged that the great starch factory in that city was robbing the people and was in a trust.

J. Sterling Morton, Cleveland's secretary of agriculture, who is a resident of Nebraska City, makes a reply to that attack upon that industry, and literally lays the demagogue who made the attack:

The men whom Bryan has the effrontery to try to warn the people of Nebraska City against the men who, with their friends, built the starch works, lost $20,000 during the early years of starch making in Nebraska, but who, without state aid or interference, put another $20,000 into a continuation of the starch making experiment and successfully established this industry in Nebraska. They have renewed their cereal mills and in the last two years put $10,000 into them, paid out in ten years several millions of dollars to farmers for corn and oats to be manufactured into goods, right here in Nebraska, and employ between 300 and 400 men and women and at good wages.

One of the men whom Bryan denounces as an enemy to the community gave the city a free library, another donated a beautiful park, and all have shown by their course rather than words their interest in the prosperity and happiness of the people of Nebraska City. These are the men who suggested and organized the United Starch company and accomplished in a lawful way the consolidation of other companies with the Argo, absolutely controlled by property owners in Nebraska City. They bought stock in the National Starch company until they and those acting with them controlled that company. That Nebraska City interests control the National Starch company is evident from the fact that Jay Morton is chairman of the executive committee and Carl Morton is a director.

When Colonel Bryan knows more about the truth he will know that the people of Nebraska City are not in favor of the destruction of the company operating the factory. Allegy it is a trust, legal, it is not. Bryan and his attorney general know this. They know, too, that the suit against the starch works is implied by political, personal and other considerations, rather than a regard for law. If it was not, why delay? If they intend to convict men who own property and bring men into the state to vote their ticket or less, why not act promptly now and demonstrate their imperialism.

The National Starch company is not a trust as that term is legally defined by the court of appeals of the state of New York in the case of the people of New York, respondent, vs. North River Sugar Refining company. The action brought against it is designed to annoy it, put it to expenses, and also to prove that Bryan and his popular associates are inclined to industrial plants which pay wages to hundreds and work up millions of dollars of raw material each year. It is notice of capital to get out of Nebraska, and keep out. It is punishment for many years to come to the state.

HERE'S AN ANSWER

POLITICAL NEWS NOTES.

The newspaper correspondents travelling with Governor Roosevelt and representing all shades of political opinion, join in a signed statement denouncing the report that the governor was under the influence of liquor at Victor, Colo.

Burke Cockran is so seriously troubled with sore throat that he probably will cancel all of his law dates. He cannot speak above a whisper.

John D. Crimmins, a wealthy New York contractor, hereafter a democrat, will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt. In 1896 he voted for Palmer and Buckner, opponents of the gold Democrats. In a lengthy statement, Mr. Crimmins says:

"The Irish in the United States are apt to be strongly inclined toward the democratic party. It was the democratic party which made them welcome to the country and gave them the opportunities they have so splendidly improved. Upon the one great issue to be decided at the polls, November the 6th, born voters will do but one way if I know the situation. They must vote to protect their own interests by the continuance in our country of abundant employment at good wages, paid in a currency as good all over the world as it is in the markets of New York."

IS A LIVE TOWN.

Decatur Men Get the Eyes Open to Joplin's Prosperity.

W. N. Boggs returned Sunday night from a business trip to Joplin, Mo., delighted with what he saw there. The bold and business activity of the place was a surprise to him although he heard that it was the liveliest place in the United States. He arrived there in the evening and when he got out of the train, noted that the streets were full of people, but he was soon made surprised when Saturday night came and the miners came to town from the suburbs of the city. Then the city shows its greatest life, the like of which he had never seen before.

Mr. Boggs saw all of the Decatur men who are out there and found most of them doing well. Some have prospects of making the big thing out of their mining investments and others are working at good wages. He was impressed with the fact that Joplin is a great place for investment of capital and the many business evidences of the town and the business blocks being erected at Joplin.

It is no doubt that in making Joplin, but that it is the steady growth of a lively mining town, the extent of the mining being unlimited.

CAN'T SCARE BABIES.

Imperialism Has No Effect on Votes Down East.

Attorney J. B. Moffett received a letter yesterday from his friend, E. B. Simonds, a prominent attorney of Medina, N. Y., in which he says of the political situation: "How are politics in your state? They are very quiet here for a presidential campaign. Most people take it for granted that McKinley is to be re-elected. Overconfidence is our only danger. I don't think there is much doubt that New York will again give him his electoral vote by a routing majority. Imperialism doesn't seem to stir the bodies down here. Trusts are baffling some bankers but I think we can clean the deck on that issue here.

Van Wyk, who wrote the democratic state convention anti-trust plank had his pockets filled with his trust since at the time the platform was proposed. Our country needs McKinley for four years."

PATRIARCH GONE.

Samuel Munich Died Suddenly at His Home Near Cerro Gordo.

Samuel Munich, aged 84 years, died suddenly Monday morning, October 8, at his home three miles northeast of Cerro Gordo. He had lived in that community for very many years and was the head of a large family of descendants. He was widely known in that section of the country and was respected by all who knew him.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after taking it a fair trial it she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy. It is for sale by J. E. King and C. F. Shilling.

John Franklin, the hackman, and the two men who bought his interest in the argument was settled. The result was that neither was satisfied with the decision and both went before a justice of the peace to get revenge. Franklin availed a warrant changing Payne with violating the ordinance, returning to him his wages and the company with the warrant unchanged.

Franklin was arrested by Officer Leach and fined three dollars and costs by Justice Hale. Payne will probably have a hearing today.

W. H. Key, J. E. Elliott and Frank Cain were arrested for drunkenness and sold seas to Justice O'Meara yesterday.

Tony Roach Overcome by Gas While at Work in a Trench.

THE MAIN SPRUNG A LEAK OPERATORS WOULD SUBMIT

Victim Was Taken Out Unconscious and for a Time His Life Was Despaired Of.

HE KNEW BUT LITTLE ABOUT IT

THE FIAT HAS NOT YET BEEN GIVEN

Tony Roach, an employee at the works of the Decatur Gas and Electric company, came out today to tell his life in a sewer trench Monday afternoon by being overcome by escaping gas. Roach was working in the trench preparing for the plumbers to cut into one of the big mains and while digging about the joint in the pipe it began to leak.

He evidently did not realize the deadly nature of the gas for he did not leave the trench at once. Within a few seconds he felt the effects of the gas and tried to climb out of the trench which was only about four feet deep. He was then too weak to get out and fell back into the bottom of the ditch.

Fortunately A. J. Fink who was working at the other end of the trench saw Roach when he fell back into the ditch and realizing that something was wrong ran to the spot, shouting his warning. He called James Sullivan and together the men lifted Roach out and carried him to the engine room of the plant while others called a doctor. The physician found the man in critical condition and it was thought for some time that the victim would not recover. After working with Roach for twenty minutes there were signs of life and in ten minutes more he was able to sit up and drink some stimulants. It was almost an hour, however, before the man was able to talk about his experience. He did not realize what had happened to him and seemed dead and unable to understand that he had been so close to death.

The men at the gas factory are unable to understand how Roach recovered from the effects of the gas at all for he had been working near a joint in the pipe and some manner a leak was sprung and the gas poured out with such force that the sand and dirt was thrown up into the air. At the time of the accident the engine in the house was at work, pumping the gas in the main on which the man was working and the account for the force of the gas leaking out of the pipe. Had Roach remained in the trench for a couple of seconds longer he would have been beyond human aid.

Roach resides at 322 East Condit street and when he had recovered sufficiently he was taken to his own home.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no avail. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by J. E. King and C. F. Shilling.

Died in Wyoming.

Word has been received in Decatur announcing the death of Arthur Mumus, 17 years old, who fell beneath a freight train and had his leg crushed, the shock causing his death. His mother was formerly Harriet Mumus of Decatur.
